Summary of Statement

Today, got a flight from Las Vegas to Detroit. One strange girl came to my rear seat and twice she got out in the middle of travel. I was not feeling well and took tablet. In full travel, I was in deep sleep. Through my wife I came to know she was sleeping on my knees and I'm not sure where I kept the hand on her. She was hearing music and sending message to someone. I believe, she drank some alcohol, it's my assumption. Around 5:40 am suddenly she got out. I then through my knowledge, I didn't get up to her.
